Imagine Your Story 2020 Summer Library Program June 29—August 17
Participate in our online reading and activity challenges for prizes, Get a Book! Give a book! and chances to win a gift basket or local business gift cards. Register online with Beanstack to complete the challenges online (they also have a Tracker App for your phone!) Visit our website for the link. If you'd like to participate offline call the library to register.

Puppeteer Pam Corcoran will be joining us for our Facebook Live Story Time on August 7 at 10 am. She will be performing and reading Frederick by Leo Lionni and showing us how to make a puppet theater. Find our puppets Crafternoon video on our YouTube Channel to prepare for your own puppet fun or pick up an activity kit outside the library starting August 3.

On-Demand Programs
Have you watched the Science Tellers "Dragons: Return of the Ice Sorceress" a "cool" adventure featuring amazing experiments with dry ice; or sung, danced and laughed with KidPower with Rachael yet? Watch them before they are gone. Visit our website for details.
