28 Final Day of Frozen February Fun (paper logs due at the library by Mar. 5)	Frozen February Fun It's time for our annual Winter Reading Program! Join one of three challenges: Kids (ages 0-11), Teens (12-18) or Adults (19+). Sign up on Beanstack or pick up a paper recording sheet from the Grab & Go cart in the back hallway of the library. Participate by reading, completing activities or both. Each reading goal and activity (for all ages) earns you chances to win a gift basket for your challenge. Plus, Kids who read (or are read) 100 stories will earn a free book and t-shirt. Teens who read 400 minutes will earn a free book. Visit our website for more details.

Owls, Owls, Owls
Join us to learn about owls and their amazing adaptations with the International Owl Center from Houston, MN. You'll also meet some owl friends!

Midwinter Smorgasbord
Inga Witscher invites you into her kitchen for a Midwinter Smorgasbord. We'll make Scandinavian Bread and learn about all of the accoutrements for the perfect midwinter smorgasbord. Inga owns and operates an organic dairy farm and hosts Around the Farm Table on Wisconsin Public Television which connects consumers and farmers through storytelling and recipes.
