Join us for a fun filled evening of talent, creativity, art, sharing and fun in celebration of Youth Art Month. This month we want you to share your talents, creativity or something you love to do. Sing, dance, read a favorite poem or one you've written yourself, play an instrument, juggle, recite your ABCs backwards... there are as many talents as there are people and we want to see yours! Submit a video or come prepared to share with us live! Visit our website for details.

PAWS to Read

March is PAWS to Read month which celebrates reading and our furry friends. EPL invites you and your favorite pets or stuffed friends to join our special guests, Jenny, Earl and Albert from Ugly Dog Therapy, for a special PJ Storytime

Virtual Gardening Series

Get ready for spring and join us each Monday evening at 6:30 pm for a different gardening topic. We kick off the series discussing garden planning with Brandon Wiarda from Sleepy Root Farm and then are joined by the St. Croix Valley Master Gardeners and the UW-Extension for discussions on seeds, soil and fertilizer, alternative gardening and weed control. No need to register just simply visit the Augusta Library YouTube channel at bit.ly/AMPLwi each Monday at 6:30 pm for these live events. Want reminders each week? Visit bit.ly/GardenRemind

Mystery Quilts

One of our favorite displays at the library each year is our showing of the finished products of our Mystery Quilt program. We continue that tradition this year with a Quilts on Parade Photo Slideshow. Watch our Facebook page or YouTube channel on March 24 for the slideshow's premiere!
