survival, justice and embracing joys alongside the difficult will inspire us all as we hear how Jessica is using these things to fuel the making of a better world through choosing light over darkness.

Are you needing help setting up that new device a family member purchased for you, wanting to learn how to use an app or looking for some other form of technological support? Call the library to sign up and get on our schedule. Barb will be available for three half an hour time slots every 2nd Monday at 10:30 am.
